

As an Indiana resident, I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. These protections have greatly reduced the number of annoying calls. Please keep the Telephone privacy law in affect. Thank you, Marvin Branstetter